“ We don't always know the impact a person can have on others, but I can say with utmost certainty that your life impacted others more than you could ever know. Even though it's been many years, my kids still remember you....you were that "nice guy who gave us a Brewers Jersey."
It was at a BBQ at Blanch & Austin's many years ago, and you were just enamored by my daughter; and before you left, you took your jersey off and put it on her.
We haven't seen each other in years, but my kids still remember you, and they still have and treasure that jersey.
You were a sweet man, I'm sorry we lost touch. You will be greatly missed.
Love your cousin Nicole Geilow (Cooley)

“ I will never forget the night you and me went to the Tigers game against the Cubs and saw Raburn hit that walk off homer off Kevin Gregg. Or the time you gave me your tickets to the Tigers Red Sox game because you knew that I am a huge Sox fan. It was just like you to think of others before yourself. You were truly the most unselfish and the most good natured person I have ever met. We worked together for a short time but the impact you had on me was huge and I am a better man for knowing you. I will miss you my friend

“ Honestly, I wish this was all just a really bad dream. And unfortunately, it's not. I have had so many great memories with Phillip. From going to Detroit Tigers Games, to backyard BBQ's. Sending thoughts and prayers from my heart in Afghanistan. I know he has his hand on my shoulder, and watching my six. When things get rough, I can hear him saying, "It's alright, I'm here, just keep going." I love you Phil, and it's going to be a different place without you. Take care.
